

UNIDOP 2020: United Nations International Day of Older Persons

Webinar: 1 October 2020, 15:00 UTC

Social Distancing and Interactions:

Challenges for Adults with Age Related Hearing Loss in the Era of COVID-19

Speaker		Topic
Prof. Barbara Weinstein	A Professor of Audiology at the Graduate Center, CUNY and the founding Executive Officer of Doctoral Programs in Public Health, Nursing Science and Physical Therapy at the Graduate Center, CUNY.	COVID, Age Related Hearing Loss, and Loneliness: The Connections
Prof. Boaz Ben David	An associate professor at the School of Psychology, the Interdisciplinary Center (IDC) Herzliya, head of the Communication, Aging and Neuropsychology lab (CANlab), and at the University of Toronto and the Toronto Rehabilitation Institute.	Cognitive and Communication Challenges for Older Adults During COVID-19 Social Distancing
Dr. Limor Lavie	A senior lecturer and the head of audiology studies in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders in the University of Haifa. An active clinician who heads a large audiology clinic and an expert in hearing rehabilitation	Hearing Rehabilitation in Older Adults and COVID-19: New Considerations for Old Challenges

Free registration: <http://bit.ly/IALP-DOP-2020>